Headteacher's weekly update for parents

Dear Parents,

It was brilliant to hear how much students enjoyed their reward trips yesterday. It was very clear they had made the most of their time at Kew Gardens, London Zoo, London Dungeon and the trampoline park. Year 12 were also clearly excited by their highly competitive onsite Stock Market Challenge event.

Letters sent to parents this week – National strike action

Please ensure you have read the letter sent to parents this morning regarding national strike action and school closure for specific year groups on Wednesday 5 and Friday 7 July.

Timetable Promotion

Year 9 have been issued their new GCSE timetables. We look forward to seeing them make a great start to their new GCSE and BTEC courses from Monday.

Year 10 & 12 Pre-Public Exams

Year 10 and 12 have made an excellent start to their PPEs. These will continue next week:

Pride

As part of our recognition of Pride month, students are allowed to wear one item of brightly coloured clothing next Tuesday (27 June). Students should ensure they wear the rest of their regular school uniform.

Eid-al-Adha

Clapton Girls' Academy supports observance of this religious festival by giving students one day's approved absence to celebrate Eid-al-Adha. Eid-al-Adha is predicted to fall on either Wednesday 28 or Thursday 29 June. If you would like your child to have one day's approved absence, please indicate which day here.
